Industry to Drive the Success of Responsible Gaming at the 27th Annual AGEM & AGA Golf Classic Presented by JCM Global

Registration opens today for May 6 event coming to SouthShore Country Club in Henderson, Nev.

LAS VEGAS (February 5, 2026) – Suppliers, operators, regulators, and affiliates from across the industry will drive the success of responsible gaming at the 27th Annual AGEM & AGA Golf Classic Presented by JCM Global.

The Golf Classic will be hosted on May 6 at the SouthShore Country Club in Henderson, Nev. as a fundraiser for the International Center for Responsible Gaming (ICRG). Over the course of its history, the tournament has raised more than $3 million to help the ICRG continue its vital and groundbreaking research.

Registration is now open, and sponsorship and player opportunities are available at golf.jcmglobal.com on a first-come, first-served basis.

ICRG President Michael Soll emphasized the importance of the Golf Classic, stating “our strong partnership with JCM, AGA and AGEM make this event – an ICRG mainstay – possible. Their efforts enable groundbreaking research into the effective treatment and prevention of gambling harms and provide the industry and its peers the tools necessary for conducting responsible gambling strategies.”

The Association of Gaming Equipment Manufacturers (AGEM) and the American Gaming Association (AGA) return as title sponsors and JCM Global repeats as presenting sponsor. GGB Magazine is the media sponsor.

“We invite the industry to join us on May 6 at SouthShore Country Club for this one-of-a-kind golf experience and to drive the success of the ICRG,” said JCM SVP – Sales, Marketing & Operations Dave Kubajak. “For the past 27 years, it has been our honor at JCM Global to organize this philanthropic event that both supports the important work of the ICRG and unites the gaming industry with competitors standing side by side.”

SouthShore Country Club is the first private Jack Nicklaus Signature Course in Nevada, an inspiration that reaches the tops of ridges before falling away down rugged canyons to the sparkling lake below. The 6,903-yard championship course draws upon the area’s unique topography to provide a one-of-a-kind golfing experience.

There are multiple sponsorship levels available to accommodate any business. For information, visit golf.jcmglobal.com or contact marketing@jcmglobal.com.

The ICRG encourages individuals to consider including them in their annual charitable giving. For more information, visit ICRG.org.

About the ICRG

The ICRG, for nearly 30 years, has been the leader in funding peer reviewed evidence-based scientific research to better understand gambling disorder and gambling problems. Our goal is to provide tools to the gambling industry to mitigate harm to players and to support responsible gambling practices. Funded research has been published over 500 times in some of the most prestigious journals in the world and research is being conducted in many countries across the globe.
