JCM Executes New Strategic Supplier Agreement with IGT Encompassing iVIZION®, iPRO™, UBA® Bill Validators and ICB® Intelligent Cash Box

LAS VEGAS (September 19, 2013) – JCM Global, the gaming industry's leading transaction technologies supplier, has executed a Global Strategic Supplier Agreement with International Game Technology (NYSE: IGT), continuing a strong partnership that began in 1990.

Under terms of the three-year agreement, JCM's award-winning iVIZION®, UBA® and the new iPRO™ bill validators, will continue to be the preferred bill validator for all IGT games.

"This new agreement is a continuation of a strong and meaningful partnership that began in 1990. We continue to be honored and humbled for the trust that IGT places in JCM and in our products," said JCM Global President Aki Isoi. "Over the past two decades, JCM has worked hard to develop the highest quality products and innovative solutions combined with the best in-field response and support of any peripheral company."

Rick Lloyd, IGT Director of Supplier Management, said, "As part of our vision, spirit and expertise to lead and transform the gaming world, IGT works closely with partners such as JCM to implement the most innovative technologies. Continuing our long-standing partnership with JCM Global is a testament to its continued ingenuity and quality products."

In 2010, JCM became IGT's first Strategic Technology Partner. As a Strategic Technology Partner, JCM works closely with IGT to develop new and innovative technologies that improve the global gaming industry.

JCM and IGT have worked closely together since 1990, converting the side-mounted bill validator to an embedded unit, revolutionizing the gaming industry.
